Professional development is planned to meet the identified growth areas of each individual. The professional development process is an individualized plan tailored to meet the needs of the new hire as well as the continuing development of the more experienced.
- 6.1.2 An effective professional development process increases student achievement because:
- job satisfaction increases as positive professional relationships are built;
 - morale improves as student achievement increases;
 - employee confidence increases as skills are developed for meeting student needs; and the job becomes more attractive and as a result more skilled applicants are recruited to the profession.
- 6.1.3 The employees covered by this contract provide a variety of invaluable services to support the students of Minneapolis Public Schools. Services include such diverse responsibilities as teaming with the classroom teacher, bilingual translations, assisting one-to-one students with special needs, early morning childcare, and assisting occupational therapists and social workers. To be effective in their areas of responsibility, Educational Support Professionals need on-going professional development throughout their careers.

Successful professional development for Educational Support Professionals is primarily focused on student learning, needs, and achievement. Professional development also focuses on providing Educational Support Professionals the opportunity to gain knowledge and experience that aligns with their career goals.

A school climate for professional learning and growth provides opportunities for collaboration, dialogue, and training focused on school – staff work for the purpose of improving student achievement.

- 6.5 Standards of Effective Instructional Support for Educational Support Professionals: In our continuing effort to increase student achievement, the Educational Support Professionals Joint Labor Management Committee has adapted the Minneapolis Public School's Standards of Effective Instructional Support to guide the practices of Educational Support Professionals as integral team members in the total teaching and learning process. (This committee was formed under the grant received from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services.)

The Standards of Effective Instructional Support were developed in 1994 to assist with decisions and planning for the improvement of instruction and student learning. During the development of these standards, a committee of teachers, principals, and administrators reviewed, analyzed and synthesized the standards and current research on teaching from the following national organizations: National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS), Educational Testing Service (PRAXIS series), National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC), Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), North Central Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and Minnesota Educational Effectiveness Program (MEEP). From that effort, the Minneapolis Standards of Effective Instruction were written.

The Standards can be used in a variety of ways. They can be used as:

- a tool for self-assessment
- a basis for teaming and/or coaching; goal setting, planning, and discussions
- a guide for implementing staff development

Professional Development

- criteria for reflection on work

All staff of the Minneapolis Public Schools can continue to improve the quality of teaching and learning through the use of standards as a foundation for professional expectations as well as a guide for planning, implementing and reflecting on instruction.

Although the Standards of Effective Instructional Support for Educational Support Professionals are clearly aligned with teacher standards, the ultimate responsibility for the design, content, and implementation of instruction is the professional responsibility of the licensed teacher.

Professional Development

Educational Support Professionals. The goals of the District's PDP process are to: improve student achievement and promote collegial and professional growth.

Participation in the PDP process will achieve these goals by:

- focusing improvement efforts on instruction;
- improving peer interaction and involvement;
- increasing communication especially between Educational Support Professionals, administrators and teachers;
- increasing parent/community participation;
- focusing on inclusion in instruction, i.e. multicultural, gender fair, ability fair and developmentally appropriate instruction;
- creating an environment which promotes risk-taking and trust;
- sharing decisions with all of the stakeholders.

The PDP process requires employees to develop and enhance their skills in their area of responsibility. The mission of the District is to ensure that all students learn. Further, the professional development plan must support the School Improvement Plan of the site.

The PDP is an individualized self-improvement plan designed by an employee and the PDP team. It is believed that the employees will assume increased responsibility for professional growth because of the support of the team and the focus on student achievement. The PDP requirement that the employee seeks professional development as part of a team will enhance a spirit of collegiality.

Plan design for the implementation of the PDP process for Educational Support Professionals is the shared responsibility of the site leadership team, the site principal, Human Resources, Teacher and Instructional Services, and other departments within Minneapolis Public Schools.

The "Standards of Effective Instructional Support for Educational Support Professionals" is provided as a guide for Educational Support Professionals in the preparation of their PDPs. 24.3.1 Step 1:

- a. The employee will informally discuss the grievance with their principal or immediate supervisor.
- b. If the grievance is not resolved at the time of the Step 1a informal discussion, it shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the Employee Relations Department with a copy to the principal or supervisor. The written grievance shall set forth the nature of the grievance, the specific facts giving rise to the grievance, the specific provisions of this Agreement allegedly violated, and the specific remedy sought. Each party will then alternately strike names until only one remains, who shall be the arbitrator who shall hear and decide the grievance. The arbitrator shall not have the power to modify in any form whatsoever any provision of this Agreement. Fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the Board of Education and the grievant or the grievant's representative.
- c. Mediation. At any time prior to the submission of a grievance to arbitration as referenced above, the parties may mutually agree to utilize the assistance of the Bureau of Mediation Services (BMS) to attempt to mediate a resolution to the grievance.
- d. Limitations on Arbitral Authority:
 - The arbitrator shall not have the power to modify, ignore, add to or subtract from, any provision of this Agreement but shall make a final and binding decision.
 - The arbitrator shall first proceed to the question of arbitrability of the grievance if such issue is raised by the School District, and then shall proceed to hearing of the evidence and testimony on the grievance, if the matter withstands the arbitrability challenge.
 - The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the issue(s) submitted by the parties, and shall have no authority to render a decision not so submitted. The arbitrator's Decision shall be rendered in writing within thirty (30) days after the close of the hearing or after submission of written briefs, whichever is later.
- e. Fees and Expenses:
 - Fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the District and the grievant or the grievant's representative.
 - Hearing Transcript: If either party desires a transcript of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, provided it pays all cost associated therewith. If both parties desire a transcript of the proceedings, the costs shall be shared equally.

Severability Clause

24.4 Time Limitations:

24.4.1 The time limitations set forth herein relating to the time for filing a grievance and demand for arbitration shall be mandatory. Failure to follow said limitations shall result in the grievance being waived and it shall not be submitted to arbitration.
